A) Troops

Feb 51 Unidentified Soviet unit quartered in the former tuberculosis hospital BUCHAREST on Serban Voda St.

50X1-HUM

3-ton ZIS tanks and a smaller number of automobiles entering and leaving the park, one by one.

A poster with a red cross and some words in Cyrillic letters can be seen at the entrance, where a sentry armed with a PPSH submachine gun is stationed.

The unit was occupied until 1947 by a Soviet military hospital whose sign has remained there in spite of its transfer or disbandment.

Further data on the unit quartered here are lacking.

b) Logistic movements

1947 Until 1947 the former tuberculosis hospital (above) was occupied by a Soviet military hospital.

50X1-HUM

sick Soviet soldiers walking in the hospital grounds.

This hospital was been transferred elsewhere or disbanded at an unknown date in 1947 and the unit, with the hospital sign still up, was occupied by an unidentified Soviet unit (see "Troops").

b) Depots

Feb 51 A fuel depot for Securitatea motor vehicles is located in BUCHAREST a garage, formerly privately owned, on Sebran Voda St., on the same level as <sup>the</sup> Cutitol de Argint stop for streetcars 12, 17, 21 and 20. The fuel is kept in underground tanks, but very probably
